

Personal Development and Annual Reviews

The Company encourages the development of employees and career advancement. The Company undertakes to provide an in-house training programme applicable to your post. To aid the process of career progression and job satisfaction, the Company has annual reviews for its employees.